Background Information:

The Minneapolis Public Health Advisory Committee to the Mayor and City Council is composed of 22 members that are appointed to two-year terms. Thirteen members are appointed by their elected official representing each ward; and one member is appointed by the Mayor. The remaining 8 slots are open membership (including 3 Member-at-Large slots) which are reviewed and approved by the City Council. Member update: With this appointment, the PHAC enjoys full membership.

Joseph Colliani is a recent graduate of the University of Minnesota – School of Public Health; was inducted into the Delta Omega Honorary Public Health Society. He works as a contractor in Environmental Health & Safety Department at 3M. He is very interested in being involved at a local, neighborhood, and community level. His passions around the aging sewer system, disease prevention, pollution control, and increasing awareness of public health matters is in the community will be a great asset to the Public Health Advisory Committee.
